Finally, EPICUR also encourages hybrid mobility.

EPICUR offers a wide range of courses that can be included in your curriculum and allow you to obtain ECTS credits.

- On the one hand, courses proposed in the Liberal Arts and Sciences course catalogue (a programme of interdisciplinary and transversal courses) which address the themes of European identities and sustainable development through courses in law, geography, sciences, etc.
- On the other hand, courses in European languages and cultures, for example Modern Greek, Nordic, Scandinavian and Slavic languages and cultures.
- EPICUR also offers internship opportunities in civil society organisations, associations, companies and start-ups based in the cities and regions of the partner universities.
- You also have the opportunity to become an ambassador of the EPICUR Alliance at the University of Strasbourg. During 6 or 12 months, your mission will be to go and meet students and staff to inform them about the existence and activities of EPICUR. As an ambassador, you will have the opportunity to participate in major events organised by the Alliance.
